

Lewiston-Porter Central School District

Aiming Higher

PRESS RELEASE

Lewiston-Porter Central School District Welcomes New High School Principal

The Lewiston-Porter Central School District Board of Education approved Mr. Bradley Rowles as the new principal of Lewiston-Porter High School on January 7th. Mr. Rowles comes to the District with over a decade of educational experience as a teacher of Social Studies and special education, a team leader, an athletics coach and as an assistant principal. He has a Bachelor of Science in Secondary Social Studies Education from Buffalo State College, a Master of Science in Students with Disabilities for Grades 7-12 and a Master of Science in Educational Administration from Canisius College.

District Superintendent, Mr. Paul Casseri says, "We are thrilled to welcome Brad into our Lew-Port family. After an extensive search for the best candidate, we feel that his experience and commitment to education is the perfect fit to help us inspire our students and staff to keep aiming higher and ensuring that each student experiences academic, social and emotional growth."

Mr. Rowles will take over his duties on February 3rd.

Paul J. Casseri,
Superintendent of Schools
4061 Creek Road, Youngstown, NY 14174
District Office: 716-286-7266 Fax: 716-754-2755
www.lew-port.com